

Handout # 5 (Lesson 3): The PATRIOT Act and the Constitution

Part of Section 412 of the Patriot Act	Number(s) of the Amendment in Bill of Rights	Rights Involved
Mandatory (required) detention of a person certified as a terrorist.
Immigration department will hold those suspected of being terrorists for seven days before charges are brought against them.
Provides for a habeas hearing on a detention. (No mention of how long a detainee waits until such a hearing is held.)
The Attorney General (not a judge) will determine if a person suspected of being a terrorist can be released.		